Emerald Green

"Hiccup," Rapunzel's voice chimed as they weaved their way through trees, shrubbery and low branches, "what's your favorite color?"

Hiccup, being the chivalrous boy he was, held a branch flourished in greenery back so that the petite girl could continue walking with ease. "I suppose green," he shrugged.

"What kind of green?" the girl inquired, walking past the boy with a small courtesy, thanking him for his deed.

"I don't know. Slow down," the boy responded, walking quickly to catch up to his blonde haired companion. "Let me see," he began, staring into her eyes with a squint. "I guess emerald," he answered before he continued walking.

With a curious look plastered on her face, Rapunzel asked, "why?"

"Well, a favorite color is a color that makes you happy," he began, cheeks burning all the while. "I like your eyes."
